

COMMISSIONERS KICK UP RUMPUS

County Board Has Interesting Session With State Road Commission

Road building programs for Weber county were under discussion yesterday in Salt Lake when the Weber county commissioners met with the state road commission. The commissioners found that with a three mill levy the county will be short $45,000 of the funds necessary to carry out the state road program for this year. It was decided to determine whether federal aid could not be obtained for paving to be done in Ogden canyon.

During the meeting the Weber commissioners brought up the question of why they had not been taken into confidence of the state commission of the pay roll in which the county of Weber was interested were not furnished the board. They were said to be particularly incensed over the hiring of automobiles at the rate of $150 a month in winter and the additional expense of approximately $50 a month for supplies for the car.

Commissioner M. P. Brown, who spoke for the Weber county board, said the board believed it was entitled to a duplicate copy of the pay roll for the road work in Weber county. He declared they were questioned by their constituents about the road work and were powerless to reply because of lack of information.

It was decided by the road commission to furnish the board with copies of the pay roll in the future.

Supporting the star line attraction will be Bud Snyder and Joe Melino, who have a syndicated comedy act that is guaranteed to be a "blue" chaser of major magnitude.

Austin Goetz and Fae Duffy will roll back in comedy talking, singing and dancing, while the duo "A Variety of Oddities."

PAPER BOX CO. OPENS FACTORY

Local Plant Starts Operation Today; Daily Run 25,000 Containers

The new plant of the Kieckhefer and Lincoln avenue was started in operation today, adding another industrial asset to Ogden. The company has erected a large brick building and installed modern machinery for the making of corrugated paper and fibre shipping cases to supply canners in Ogden, Salt Lake and other parts of the state. The capacity is from 20,000 to 25,000 containers daily or approximately four million per annum.

The new venture has the support of the members of the Utah Canners association and is assured of a busy future.

The Kieckhefer Box company is said to be the largest corporation of its kind in the United States, having its main plant at Milwaukee and branch factories at Waukesha, Wis., and Camden, N. J. The company also operates its own paper manufacturing mills in Wisconsin.

Vice president E. J. Walker of Milwaukee, who has been overseeing the placing of machinery and other finishing details for the past ten days, returned to the east yesterday. The machinery is all electrically driven and so arranged that the manufacturing processes continue in a straight line from the time the large squares of paper are fed into the printing press, are creased, cut and folded, until the container is completed by stapling or taping of the edges. The building itself measures 50x155 feet and is well lighted.

According to Manager W. J. Shortfager, about thirty-five people will be employed when a capacity run is attained. While the paper board containers will go principally to canners, the fibre boxes, which are higher grade, will be used by milk condensers. Both represent a considerable saving over the cost of lumber. The company intends to seek business in all parts of the west and will expand its plant when conditions warrant it, Mr. Shortfager said.

Immediate Spraying of Trees Is Urged

Immediate spraying of fruit trees is urged by C. E. Pettigrew, county crop and pest inspector, on account of the lateness of the spring season. Mr. Pettigrew suggests using lime and sulphur in the proportions of one gallon of lime and sulphur to eight gallons of water. Where fruit trees have San Jose scale, scalecide is preferable, he said. However, if sulphur and lime is used a high pressure pump is essential to obtain the proper results.

GEORGIA G. O. P. HAS WARM TILT

Two Sets of Delegates Elected to National Convention, Will Contest Seats

ATLANTA, Ga., April 8.—Two sets of Georgia delegates were elected to the Republican national convention and will make a contest there for recognition.

The break came after a turmoil in which Police Chief Deavers took a hand on complaints of officials in the state capital, where the meeting was held. One of the factions, headed by Roscoe Pickett, state chairman, elected four delegates-at-large instructed for Major General Leonard Wood.

The other, headed by Henry Lincoln Johnson, negro, formerly collector of internal revenue here, and C. P. G. Goree, a lawyer of Atlanta, elected uninstructed delegates. The meeting was called for noon in the house of representatives, but two hours before that time the Pickett element arrived and proceeded to business behind locked doors. Arriving to find themselves barred from the convention, the Johnson-Goree faction pounded the doors, creating such excitement that the police were called. Governor Bowers then ordered the hall should be opened to all. The Pickett followers explained later that they had intended to open the doors at noon.

Shouting and singing, the Johnson-Goree faction marched into the hall and proceeded to take charge. Johnson himself mounted the platform, called the meeting to order and tried to make a speech against factionalism, but was almost drowned out by a chorus of shouts. Finally the two factions held separate meetings in the same hall and elected their separate delegates.

WOMEN'S CLUB SESSIONS CLOSE

Mrs. E. O. Wattis of Ogden Presides; Biennial Meeting Plans Told

Mrs. R. B. Porter, state director for the Utah federation of the women's clubs, outlined the plans for the entertainment of the Utah delegates to the biennial meeting of the federation of women's clubs to be held at Des Moines, Iowa, June 18 to 23, at the final meeting of the western club, women held at the Commercial club in Salt Lake yesterday. Mrs. E. O. Wattis of Ogden presided at the session. Mrs. Thomas D. Dee was also one of the Ogden visitors at the meeting.

A permanent organization of the intermountain and coast federation of women's clubs also was effected at the afternoon session of the western club women. The officers elected for this organization were Mrs. E. O. Leatherwood, president of the Utah state federation, president. She will be assisted by Mrs. M. J. Church of Nevada, auditor, and Mrs. C. S. Kinney of Salt Lake, parliamentarian.

The constitution was remodeled and adopted. Oregon and Washington, although not represented at the conference, have signified their desire of entering the federation. It is expected that California will do so also.

The program given yesterday at the morning and afternoon sessions included an address on "The Accomplishments along the prevention of infant mortality," Miss Lena McCarthy, superintendent of the Utah State Public Health association.

An outline of work for women's clubs to carry on during summer was given by Mrs. Ada Harrison of Springfield. The home economics round table was presided over by Miss Jean Cox, the civics round table by Mrs. M. J. Roles, and the educational round table by Miss Alice Reynolds.

The closing sessions of the conference will be held at 10 a. m. today, at the Commercial club.

Club women attending the conference federation were the guests yesterday noon of the Utah Manufacturers' association at its annual dinner of home grown products at the Commercial club.

Alex Eberhardt acted as toastmaster. Talks were given by Mrs. Leatherwood and Mrs. M. J. Sweezy, president of the Idaho state federation. Both urged that every club woman patronize home industries. FRANKFORT IS SCENE OF WILD DISTURBANCES

MAVENCE, April 7.—(By the Associated Press.) Disturbances broke out in Frankfort today but energetic intervention by the French troops restored order. From German sources it is learned that six Germans were killed and 35 wounded. It is reported that the manifestations which gave rise to these incidents were due to an order originating in Berlin.

"The first day of the occupation of Frankfort passed without incident the reception by the population was almost cordial," said General de Goutte, the French commander, on his return from a tour of inspection. "Then, suddenly on orders from Berlin, a certain ferment seized the population. This ferment degenerated into aggression and our soldiers in self defense were obliged to use their arms. So far as I know, we had no losses."

"The incident shows how we must watch proceedings in Berlin and that is why the events in the Ruhr demand my whole attention. You cannot consider what is going on in the Ruhr and here apart; there is a close relation between the events we are witnessing today. The aggression at Frankfort and events in the Ruhr are attributable to the same military reaction. Of that we have absolute proof."

"The Berlin government allowed the reichswehr to invade the Ruhr district unnecessarily because it was the desire of Kapp, von Luettwitz and their like. The coup d'etat having failed, only through the general strike, the military party sought revenge on the working classes and invented the bolshevist peril in the Ruhr. It ought to be known in France and elsewhere that there never was any bolshevist peril in the Ruhr. It was simply a case of a population of workers, which hates Prussian militarism, asking only to be allowed to work in peace. The population was still at work in Essen yesterday. What is happening now is the result of the reichswehr occupation."

noticeable today in French public opinion, which was unanimously favorable yesterday regarding the advisability of the occupation of the Rhine cities. Official circles were silent.

The failure of the American ambassador, Hugh C. Wallace, the British ambassador, the Earl of Derby, Baron Matsui, representing Japan and Count Bonin-Longare, Italy, to express an opinion concerning Premier Millerand's note is not interpreted as unfavorable, but as merely pointing to the fact that none of them has yet received instructions concerning the attitude of their respective governments on the situation.

The attitude of the government of France, however, is one of expectancy and there is even some anxiety regarding the probable course to be adopted by the allied governments.

Great interest is displayed in the meeting of the British cabinet tomorrow and there is much speculation as to Washington's official expression.

Banking, financial and business circles are more outspoken; the opinion is freely expressed that intervention was untimely and detrimental to French interests.

At the stock exchange today the belief was expressed that the French government fell into a trap cleverly laid by the German government to separate France from her allies by asking for individual French authorization to enter the Ruhr district and putting it up to France alone to refuse Germany permission to take military measures.

The dollar rose today to the highest point ever known—15.35 and the pound sterling to 61.10. The Belgian franc rose to 1.09. On the other hand French francs decreased on all markets, both allied and neutral, which caused brokers to say:

"France is going it alone—apparently the wrong way."

The German mark reached 25 centimes, a rise of five points since last Friday.

STOCKYARDS BONUS SYSTEM A FAILURE

CHICAGO, April 5.—Judge Samuel Alschuler, sponsor for the bonus system for stockyard workers, declared it to be a failure after he had acted as arbitrator this week, in the latest yards' wage dispute.

He said: "Workingmen do not seem to regard the bonus as part of their pay, and I honestly believe the employers do not get credit for all the money they pay out. If you ask one of the men from the yards how much he gets an hour he will tell you but won't refer to the bonus."

Dennis Lane, international secretary of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters' and Butchers' association, said that the bonus looks like charity.
